

Urban Planting Schemes

Aside from providing benefits to biodiversity wildflower planting schemes are also very visually attractive. In urban areas vibrantly coloured wildflowers provide a cost effective alternative to standard amenity planting schemes such as seasonal bedding plants.

Wildflower planting schemes also provide excellent opportunities for involving community groups, schools, etc. in taking practical actions to enhance biodiversity.

Wildflower planting in city centre park

